

Altru Drama present

Rumpelstiltskin

A new performance for children & families

Available June - August 2024

Altru[★]
INSPIRE | CREATE | EDUCATE

Rumpelstiltskin

A brand new adaptation of the classic tale, presented by Altru Drama CIC.

Altru Drama is a creative education organisation, based in Liverpool.

Altru tour high quality, accessible and engaging theatre for young audiences. We work nationally, but our focus is on the North West of England.

We want to use our performances to engage children and their families in storytelling, inspiring them to pick up books and read together.

Our performances are presented by professional actors, but they have a 'hand-made' and organic quality to them which encourages children to have a go at telling their own tales and adapting stories for performance themselves.

Rumpelstiltskin

Key information:

Running time: 30 minutes straight through

Intended audience: Children aged 3- 11 and their families

Space required: Minimum dimensions: 6m x 6m

Because we perform in non-traditional spaces we are able to adapt the set to meet the needs of many different settings.

Minimum get in required: 30 minutes

Company size: Two actors

Technical information:

Music cues are managed by the actors on stage and this is integrated into the performance. There is also live music (guitar) which is usually played acoustically.

Actors are happy to be miked if required, but we do not usually do this.

As we usually work in non-theatre spaces we do not use lights and do not need blackout. We will, however, have a lighting plan and design for theatre spaces which can be used and provided in advance.

"We attended the performance last Saturday and we loved it! My daughter wasn't even blinking, paying attention to every detail. Congratulations to all the people involved! And thank you for such a joyful moment."

Ana, Parent attending library performance of previous Altru adaptation
'Charlotte's Web'

Rumpelstiltskin

Mr Peddler thinks he can sell anything. Well, anything except books - he thinks they're pretty dull. But one day he meets Robyn - a girl who loves books - and a grand adventure into stories begins.

Together Mr Peddler and Robyn create the performance of Rumpelstiltskin for their audience - showing them that books truly are magical!

Available dates:

Rumpelstiltskin will be touring schools, community venues, libraries and small theatre spaces between the following dates:

Saturday 8th June - Saturday 31st August 2024

During this tour period, we would be happy to explore the possibility of outdoor performances and feel the performance would lend itself to outdoor spaces.

Rumpelstiltskin

"I just want to say how much my grandson and I enjoyed the morning we spent in your company on Saturday at Garston library. William was positively inspired and was talking about it all weekend."

Margaret Hale, Grandparent

To find out more about Rumpelstiltskin, have a chat or book a date for your setting contact Kate or Dan as follows:

Phone

0151 443 0333

email:

kate@altru.co.uk / dan@altru.co.uk

More information about Altru Drama CIC can also be found on our website:

www.altru.co.uk